Special Business – Notices of Motion

9a. Adoption of New Constitution. (Management Committee)

To consider, and if thought fit, pass the following special resolution.

That the constitution titled ‘draft for adoption 2024’ be adopted in its entirety and substituted for the 2019 constitution version dated 13th November 2018.

NOTE: As this Motion seeks to amend the rules of the Cooroy Golf Club Constitution it requires a special resolution. A special resolution succeeds if agreed to by at least 75% of the members who are eligible to vote at the general meeting. A special resolution cannot be amended at the meeting.

Explanatory Notes

- Our current 2019 Constitution is outdated, does not comply with the Act and is unworkable.
- The Management Committee engaged governance consultants CPR Group to assist with the re-write of the Constitution at the recommendation of Golf Australia which provided co-funding for this project (GA $3,000, CGC $500).
CPR’s Constitution re-writes have been successfully adopted and working functionally in several Sunshine Coast golf clubs and many other areas throughout Queensland. By engaging CPR Group and adopting this Constitution we are guaranteed that it complies with the Act, other regulatory requirements, and modern best practice.
- The draft for adoption 2024’ is a collaborative effort between CPR Group and the management committee and considers member feedback.
- If the Constitution is adopted, CPR will assist with the paperwork for the Office of Fair Trading and lodge it on our behalf as part of the engagement. This can take between 4 and 8 weeks.
- If it is not adopted, the club continues with its current Constitution. And while CPR Group would be able to assist with another attempt in 2025 based on the same draft, any further changes or meetings with the Management Committee would require an extension of the scope of works that would not attract any co-funding. CPR indicated that they are not interested in putting their name to anything that does not comply with Act and other regulations.

9b. Junior Committee Formation (Grathan Leatherbarrow)

To consider, and if thought fit, pass the following ordinary resolution.

That the meeting agrees to discuss the formation of a junior subcommittee.

NOTE: The Motion is resolved in the affirmative by a majority of eligible financial members at the meeting voting in favour.

Constitution

Draft for Adoption 2024

Member Feedback and Responses

CGC Constitution Review
Member Feedback with Responses from CPR Group

3.6.3. The register of members is open for inspection only by the secretary, the management committee and any other person approved by the management committee.

Q: In what instances would “any other person” be approved for access to the member register?

A: Some examples are:

- Auditors
  - Compliance officers (liquor)
  - Affiliated bodies (Golf Australia)

4.2.5. Nothing in this constitution shall prevent the management committee from immediately suspending a member’s right to participate in club activities in circumstances considered by the management committee to warrant such immediate action, pending the process outlined in clauses 4.2.2 - 4.2.4.

Q: Can a member be suspended before any written notice, due process, addressing of the committee and appeal rights?

A: Clauses 4.2.5. (amended) and 4.2.6. (added) now better reflect the intent of this clause. “suspension” has been removed so as not to be confused with the suspension of club membership.

These clauses allow for a member to be prohibited from club activities if the MC deems it in the best interests of club members (e.g. threatening behaviour, aggression). The process of discipline must still be followed for membership suspension or termination, including the opportunity to address the MC and appeal rights.

4.2.5. Nothing in this constitution shall prevent the management committee from immediately prohibiting a member’s right to participate in club activities in circumstances considered by the management committee to warrant such immediate action, pending the process outlined in clauses
Error! Reference source not found. - Error! Reference source not found..

4.2.6. Upon the suspension or termination of their membership, a member shall immediately forfeit all rights, privileges, and benefits associated with membership, including but not limited to, voting rights, access to member services, and participation in club activities.

---

4.6.2. The management committee does not have to act under clause 4.5.5 or 4.5.7 if: .....d. the dispute could reasonably be considered frivolous, vexatious, misconceived, or lacking in substance or the dispute relates to a matter that has already been subject of the grievance procedure.

Q: Who decides that the dispute is considered as above?

A: The management committee. Note: members have the right to appeal to ensure they have not been unreasonably suspended or terminated.

5.1.1. The management committee of the club must comprise at least four and no more than seven members, including:

- a. president;*
- b. finance director; and*
- c. up to five other members elected at a general meeting.*

Q: Can the MC consist of only 4 members with a quorum being 3?

A: Correct. This aligns with the Act.

CGC Constitution Review
Member Feedback with Responses from CPR Group

11.7.1. The club may pay, whether directly or through an interposed entity, a premium for a contract insuring a secretary, management committee member or employee against liability that the person incurs as an officer of the club including a liability for legal costs.

Q: What circumstances does this include? Does this include legal action taken against a committee member, if the legal action goes AGAINST the committee member?

A: The use of “may” means the club may (but is not bound to) have this type of insurance in place. CPR Group cannot comment on what it covers, as this would all depend on the insurance the club takes out. We advise the club to seek that advice from the insurance providers themselves.

Q: Concerns that the draft provides too much discretion and power to the management committee.

A: The management committee alone are accountable for the club. This accountability cannot be delegated. MC members are bound to act in good faith, practice skill and diligence, prevent insolvent trading and act in the organisation's best interest. Should the management committee not perform as the members expect, the members can:

- Request a general meeting to have one or more management committee members removed;
- Elect other management committee members at the following AGM;
- Request a general meeting for the purpose of voting on submitted motions

Some key points from the current constitution, that already demonstrate the management committee's decision-making powers, show that this is not changing with the new constitution:

4. Membership

Membership of The Club shall be open, to any person of good character and repute who is interested in the playing of the game of golf and who has attained the age of 18 years and whose Membership is, in the opinion of the Management Committee, likely to be compatible with the existing Members of The Club.

5.1. Life Members

Shall mean such persons who shall, on the recommendation of the Management Committee, be elected as a Life Member at any General Meeting of The Club...

*6. e) All proposals for Membership (other than Honorary or Temporary membership) of The Club shall be dealt with and determined by the Management Committee at a Meeting or Meetings.

*9. a) The Management Committee shall have the power to reprimand, suspend or expel any Member who, in The Club premises or elsewhere, is in the opinion of the Management Committee, guilty of conduct derogatory to the character of a gentleman or lady or prejudicial to the interests of The Club. A Member shall not be suspended from the privileges of membership under this rule for a period longer than six (6) months.

10.1. The Management Committee

*The business and affairs of the club shall be under the control and management of a Management Committee.

12.1. Except as otherwise provided by these Rules and subject to resolutions of the Members of The Club carried at any General Meeting, the Management Committee: –

*(a) Shall have the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of The Club; and

*(b) Shall have the authority to interpret the meaning of these Rules and matters relating to The Club on which these Rules are silent.

Q: Suggestion of appointing a grievance officer.

A: Clause 4.5.8. added. The management committee may appoint an individual to the role of grievance officer.

Q: Suggestion that for the appeals against member suspensions and terminations, that members be privy to all evidence from both parties, so a true and accurate version of events is tabled.

A: Not applicable under the new constitution, as the members will not hear the appeal.

Q: Require all candidates for the Cooroy Golf Club Management Committee to present a platform detailing their goals, challenges they aim to address, and how they will contribute to the club's strategic objectives, promoting transparency, accountability, and informed voting. This will help members be clearly informed about who they are voting for.

A: Sound idea, but best situated in the bylaws. Something like:
Management committee candidates must provide the secretary with a completed nomination form, including a candidate statement, for display on the club noticeboard and website.

Q: Correspondence from MC to members to be vetted.

A: If the members believe the MC has breached the constitution, including the use of the register of members, they have the right to call the MC to account via a general meeting.
e.g.

Use of information on register of members

Subject to the Act, confidentiality considerations and privacy laws, the register of members may be used solely to further the objects of the club.

Q: Management committee meeting minutes should be available to members.

A: CPR Group advises against making management committee meeting minutes available in their entirety. Some reasons are:

- The discussion of confidential, legal or commercially sensitive information
- Preventing misinterpretation
- Data privacy
- Efficiency in communication (i.e. summary of minutes)

Also, the Act does not require members to have access to management committee meeting minutes. However, the management committee has asked for the following clause to be added to the draft:

7.3.4. The management committee must publish a summary of its meeting minutes, including approved resolutions, on the club's website within 14 days of each management committee meeting.

Q: Allow absentee voting or proxy voting with clear guidelines to enhance member participation and rights, enabling all members to have their voices heard even when unable to attend meetings in person.

A: The MC believes that the provisions for electronic voting negate the need for proxy voting.

Q: Enhance governance transparency by including independent audits and providing quarterly financial updates to members for improved accountability.

A: A quarterly financial update is a sound idea but better suited for the bylaws.

CGC Constitution Review
Member Feedback with Responses from CPR Group

Q: Suggestion of a Member Rights Committee. This body would act as a neutral party to handle disputes, ensuring fair treatment and consistent application of the rules.

Some clubs form a conduct committee for this purpose. Ultimately, the MC has the final say on suspending or terminating a member, even when recommended by a separate committee. A conduct committee is a good idea, but not a lot of need to be enshrined in the constitution (although it can be if the MC wishes), and better suited in the bylaws.

Q: All members must be personally notified of club notices, meetings and events via electronic means.

A: Written notice is required for several types of notice, including general meetings and notice of suspension or termination. Using electronic means only may disadvantage some members who rely on non-electronic notice methods (e.g. letters, noticeboards). The draft constitution provides flexibility for the club to use different methods of notice.

Q: Establish clear performance metrics for the management committee, including financial health, membership growth, member satisfaction, facility maintenance, community engagement, and strategic objectives, with regular assessments and the option for an independent review or vote of confidence if targets are not met.

A: CPR Group sees no need for this level of detail in the constitution. The performance metrics suggested are all valid, but should not be included in the constitution or tied to a management committee's tenure. Ultimately, the members must elect and re-elect the MC each year. It is the membership's prerogative to make these decisions based on the criteria they deem necessary.

Q: What has been the member feedback process?

A: The MC has collated the information and asked CPR Group for comments, advice and suggestions. The MC has implemented some of the suggested changes. This document provides all members with the feedback that has been received, with CPR Group's responses.

4.2.1. The management committee may take action to suspend or terminate a member's membership if it is determined that the member has:

d. brought themselves, the club, any other member or the sport into disrepute; or

Q: Who determines this and how is it measured?

A: At the discretion of the management committee. Note, members have the right to appeal to ensure they have not been unreasonably suspended or terminated.

Q: 4.3.3. ....which may include a barrister or solicitor.....

Note: "may include a barrister or solicitor" has been removed from the draft.

Q: What are the requirements for panel members selection?

A: Appeals panel members must not be management committee members nor have a conflict or bias in the appeal.

CGC Constitution Review

Member Feedback with Responses from CPR Group

Added clause:

4.3.4. In the event that the appeals panel, the appellant, or the management committee, determines that an appeals panel member is in any way conflicted or biased in relation to an appeal, the appeals panel member must absent themselves from the appeals panel and be replaced by another eligible person.

Q: Clarify membership classes and sub-classes in the constitution to avoid ambiguity about rights and obligations and consider requiring member approval for changes to sub-classes to enhance transparency and limit discretionary control by the management committee.

A: Each sub-class of a membership classification will automatically have the rights of that particular membership classification. An option for clarifying sub-categories is to clarify each sub-category prior to or at the same time as the constitution adoption.

Q: Establish a clear framework and criteria for the management committee's discretion to waive or discount membership fees to prevent potential bias and ensure fairness.

A: This clause has been removed.

Q: Define clear terms and limits for the management committee's authority to impose levies to provide members with clarity on potential financial obligations.

A: The MC cannot impose a levy without approval from the members. If the MC do not provide a strong enough case for approval, the members are unlikely to pass the motion.

Q: Give new member applicants the right of appeal if their application is rejected.

A: Given that applicants are not yet members, we believe that the club should not be expected to use club resources and time to hear the appeal of a non-member. The management committee, as the elected body to oversee the operations of the club, should have oversight over who is admitted as members.

Q: Clarify the grievance procedure to outline steps following failed mediation and limit the management committee's discretion to dismiss grievances without investigation, ensuring consistency and fairness in dispute resolution.

A: This grievance procedure has been adapted by the version provided by the Office of Fair Trading, which is now included in the model rules. Correct, the management committee can use its discretion to determine the nature of the grievance. However, the member could go to the OFT if they feel the grievance has been unfairly dismissed.

Q: Introduce member oversight and reporting requirements for subcommittees to ensure transparency and accountability in their operations and appointments.

A: As the only members accountable, the management committee should have oversight.

Q: Limited explanation of how alterations to the constitution should be proposed and processed.

11.4.1. Alteration of constitution

Subject to the Act, this constitution may be amended, repealed or added to by a special resolution carried at a general meeting.

CGC Constitution Review

Member Feedback with Responses from CPR Group

A special resolution can be proposed by any members, not just the management committee. Ultimately, the members must approve the constitution for it to be adopted.

Q: Conflict of interest with CPR Group also engaged by the club for other projects.

CPR Group has been engaged by the club and Golf Australia to provide a constitution review. We don't decide if the constitution is adopted, the members do. We are no arbiters in this process but are instead working under the instructions of the MC.
